Ticket offer for concert by London Mozart Players

Norfolk Music Hub and Orchestras Live are delighted to be welcoming London Mozart Players to North Norfolk for a series of workshops and performances in February, which includes the Celebration of Young Musicians.

London Mozart Players will be performing a public concert, also in the Auden Theatre, on Friday 28 February 2020, at 7.30pm.

The programme will feature repertoire also appearing at the workshop, including the Rondo from Mozart's Horn Concerto No. 4, which is also featured on BBC Ten Pieces.

We are pleased to be able to offer complimentary tickets for the concert to those attending the workshop, along with their families.

These complimentary tickets can be reserved on the workshop registration form.

To enable as many people as possible to be able to take full advantage of this opportunity, places are limited to three per family. If you would like to attend and require additional tickets then please contact the box office at Gresham's School on 01263 713444
